

The ANOCA President of vigorously condemns racist attacks that portray another era and another world, other than that of progress, modernity and love of humankind.

Speaking on behalf of the African Olympic and Sports Movement, ANOCA President, Honourable Mustapha Berraf, President of the Olympafrica Foundation and elected representative of the National Olympic Committees of Africa, strongly voiced his total support for French singer, Aya Nakamura, one of the greatest prides of cultural and multi-dimensional Africa.

The ANOCA President of vigorously condemns racist attacks that portray another era and another world, other than that of progress, modernity and love of humankind.

Moved by the probable choice of Ms Aya Nakamura to sing “PIAF” at the opening of the biggest global event, ANOCA wishes to thank Mr Emmanuel Macron, President of the Republic of France, for this strong gesture in favour of our continental pride.

Sporting Africa is forging ahead, in unity, towards progress and modernity, and wishes to underscore that it stands in fraternity and friendship with all peoples.

UNITY, SOLIDARITY, FRATERNITY

UNITÉ, SOLIDARITÉ,
FRATERNITÉ
