ANOCA-ASOIF: HAND IN GLOVE

Belgian Ingram De VOS is the new President of the Association of Summer Olympic International Federations, ASOIF. He was elected on 9 April 2024 during the 48th ASOIF General Assembly in Birmingham, UK, on the sidelines of the SportAccord World Sport and Business Summit. He was elected for a four-year term.

After his election, Ingram De VOS said:

“I am very touched by today’s result and I wish to express my deep gratitude to the International Summer Sports Federations for their trust.”

Jean Michel SAIVE, President of the Belgian Olympic and Interfederal Committee, also expressed satisfaction with the election:

“We know Ingram as a very reliable, hard-working and honest man with a heart for sports. We are fortunate that we can count on his expertise for key strategic decisions. I wish to congratulate Ingram for accepting the daunting task of leading such a vital organisation within the Olympic Movement as its first President from Belgium. I am quite convinced that he will be an excellent President of ASOIF.”

The partnership between ANOCA and ASOIF has, among other things, led to an agreement that will make the next African Games qualifiers for the Los Angeles Olympic Games.

For ANOCA President, Mustapha BERRAF:

“This is a partnership characterized by friendship and fraternity, for a project that will be submitted to the IOC, and bilateral coordination meetings will be organised for this purpose. I also wish to congratulate the newly elected President of ASOIF, Ingram De VOS, on his brilliant election. ANOCA and ASOIF will continue to work hand in hand and in solidarity for the benefit of sport and Olympism.”
