CONTINUITY FOR AN

OLYMPIC AND SPORTING AFRICA

An elective General Assembly of the Association of National Olympic Committees of Africa is convened for 14 and 15 March 2025 at the Centre International des Conférences Abdelatif Rahal, Algiers, under the distinguished patronage of the President of the Republic of Algeria, His Excellency Abdelmajid TEBBOUNE.

Holding under the theme “Unity through sport, excellence for Africa”, the event will bring together representatives of the 54 African NOCs, world and African sports dignitaries, and various key stakeholders of the international Olympic and Sports Movement.

The ANOCA General Assembly is much more than a statutory meeting. It is a strategic moment to define future priorities and guidelines of the African Olympic movement and to discuss the major challenges of sport on the continent, notably:

- Sports infrastructure development;
- Training of athletes and coaches.
- Promotion of gender equality in sport.
- Preparation of African athletes for the 2028 Olympic Games.

The high point of the meeting will be the election of the ANOCA President and the honourable members of the Executive Committee, a major challenge for the future of the African Olympic Movement.

The incumbent President, Mustapha BERRAF, is running unchallenged.
